ALLEGATIONS

This complaint was registered, via telephone, with the Independent Police Review (IPRA) on 22 June 2009, by the complainant, [REDACTED]. It is alleged that on 22 June 2009, at approximately 1755 hours, in the courtyard of the [REDACTED] Apartment Complex, located at [REDACTED] the accused, Sergeant Eric Cato, Star #1321, Unit 189:

- (1) Tapped/poked [REDACTED] in the face with a radio.
- (2) Called [REDACTED] a “motherfucker.”
- (3) Stated, “I will fuck you up,” to [REDACTED]
- (4) Stated, “I will put you six feet under,” to [REDACTED]
- (5) Threatened [REDACTED] by stating that he would put [REDACTED] family “six feet under.”
- (6) Threatened to “beat up” [REDACTED]
- (7) Stated to [REDACTED] “You don’t know who you are fucking with.”

INVESTIGATION

In a statement to IPRA, complainant [REDACTED] stated that he was involved in a card game inside the courtyard of the [REDACTED] Apartment Complex when four security guards arrived and instructed all non-residents to vacate the premises. [REDACTED] remained with his brother, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] related that a security guard, now known as off-duty Sergeant Cato, exchanged words with [REDACTED] telling him that he was not tough and had “a smart mouth.”

Sergeant Cato then “tapped” the butt end of his handheld “police style”: radio against [REDACTED] left cheek three times. Sergeant Cato also called [REDACTED] a “motherfucker” and stated, “I will fuck you up.” Sergeant Cato threatened [REDACTED] by stating, “I will put you six feet under,” and also threatened to put [REDACTED] family “six feet under.” Sergeant Cato also threatened to “beat up” [REDACTED] sustained no injuries as a result of this incident and did not seek medical treatment. (Atts. #9, 10).

In a statement to IPRA, witness [REDACTED] stated that he was in the courtyard watching a card game played by [REDACTED] and two other unknown building residents. There were approximately eight males standing in a group “rapping (making music).” A security officer, now known as off-duty Sergeant Cato, approached their group. Sergeant Cato was accompanied by a female security officer [REDACTED] who told them that other residents had complained because they were too loud. [REDACTED] denied her claim, stating that neither his card group nor the rap group were too loud. Security officer Diana ordered all non-residents to leave the premises.

[REDACTED] related that Sergeant Cato thought [REDACTED] spoke to him when [REDACTED] actually spoke to one of the unknown card players. Sergeant Cato put his walkie-talkie on the bench, approached [REDACTED] and pointed his finger at [REDACTED] face while he stated, "You think you're tough. I'll take you in the hallway and put you six feet under and fuck you up." Sergeant Cato then picked up the walkie-talkie and pressed the bottom of it into the left side of [REDACTED] left temple several times, causing [REDACTED] head to move sideways. Sergeant Cato then walked away with the female security officer. [REDACTED] and the [REDACTED] went upstairs and told [REDACTED] mother, [REDACTED] what happened. [REDACTED] then called and made a police report against Sergeant Cato. (Atts. #15, 19).

In a statement to IPRA, witness [REDACTED] stated that he was playing cards in the courtyard with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. A small boom box (portable radio/stereo) was playing as four security officers from the [REDACTED] Apartments walked into the courtyard. The officers included Sergeant Cato and Security Officer [REDACTED] and two other security officers, now known as Security Officers Terrence [REDACTED] and Crawford, one of whom smelled the water bottle [REDACTED] held. Sergeant Kato told this security officer that he was wasting his time because [REDACTED] had "motherfucking" issues and he (Sergeant Cato) would "handle" [REDACTED]. Sergeant Cato also referred to [REDACTED] as a "motherfucker."

[REDACTED] stated that Sergeant Cato then picked up his walkie-talkie and "muffed" it, that is poked [REDACTED] on the left side of the face with the walkie-talkie. Sergeant Cato then stated that they all thought they were tough and "I'll put you six feet under," referring to the [REDACTED] and his family. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] sustained no injury as a result of this incident and that the security officers used a "noise complaint" as the excuse to initiate contact with them. When the security officers left, the [REDACTED] went to their apartment and their mother, [REDACTED] called 911 to make a report against Sergeant Cato. (Atts. #19, 20).

Contact information for the additional witnesses named by the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were not provided to IPRA.

General Offense Case Report for Simple Assault, RD #HR389361, stated that [REDACTED] reported that an offender known as "Cato" had assaulted [REDACTED] (Att. #6).

In a To-From Subject Report, Sergeant McLaughlin reported that "Kato" was identified as off duty Sergeant Cato, and that when he called IPRA to obtain a Log Number, he was informed that this matter was already being investigated under this number. (Att. #4).

In a statement to IPRA, Security Officer [REDACTED] stated he worked with Sergeant Cato when they came upon a disturbance in the courtyard. Sergeant Cato and [REDACTED] directed profanities toward each other and he did hear Sergeant Cato state, "You don't know who you are fucking with." According to [REDACTED] Sergeant Cato directed profanity toward [REDACTED] first but Sergeant Cato did not touch him at anytime with any object. [REDACTED] stated that Sergeant Cato placed his radio on the table and did not pick it up until he left. Security Director [REDACTED] and Security Officer Johnson were also present. (Atts. #31—32).

In a statement to IPRA, [REDACTED] Director of Security at the [REDACTED] Apartments, stated that she was with Sergeant Kato and Officer Johnson, both off-duty and working as security, and security officer [REDACTED] when they came upon a disturbance in the courtyard. [REDACTED] saw Sergeant Cato speak with an unknown male but did not hear their conversation. [REDACTED] did not observe Sergeant Cato poke the male in the face with a radio, adding that Sergeant Cato had put his radio on a table and did not pick it up until he left the scene. (Atts. #36, 37).

In a Witness Statement, Officer Johnson, #10048, stated that his secondary employment is as a Security Officer at the [REDACTED] Apartments and that on 22 June 2009, he worked with [REDACTED] Sergeant Cato and Director [REDACTED] when they responded to a loud noise complaint in the courtyard. Officer Johnson stated that they all had radios and that he stepped away to speak to one of the males in the courtyard. Officer Johnson stated that his back was to Sergeant Cato and he was not focused on Sergeant Cato's conversation. Officer Johnson did not hear Sergeant Cato use any profanity, threaten anyone, or see Sergeant Cato put his radio "in the face" of anyone. (Att. #42).

In an Accused Report, Sergeant Cato stated that he worked off duty as a Security Officer at [REDACTED] Apartments when he responded to a tenant noise complaint. Sergeant Cato told [REDACTED] and several other individuals that there was a complaint and "they had to cut their music down." [REDACTED] responded with profanity. Sergeant Cato denied the allegations, stating that he did not threaten [REDACTED] in anyway, did not use profanity and did not tap/poke [REDACTED] on the face with his radio. (Att. #50).

CONCLUSION

The Reporting Investigator recommends the findings of NOT SUSTAINED for Allegations #1-7 against the Accused Officer, Sergeant Cato. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove that the incident occurred as alleged by the victim, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Various accounts of the incident were provided by the witnesses in relation to the alleged verbal abuse and physical abuse of the victim, [REDACTED] by the accused. Additionally no independent witnesses came forward to provide statements. Therefore the Reporting Investigator recommends the finding of NOT SUSTAINED.
